

Progression of Grammar

Year	Spellings Prefixes Suffixes	Discuss grammatical terminology	Co- ordinating conjunctions	Subordinating conjunctions	Tense	Adjectives	Adverbs	Expanded Noun Phrases	Fronted Adverbials	Pronouns	Preposition	Relative Clauses	Vary clauses	Passive voice
Reception	Phonetically plausible sentences can be read by themselves.
Year 1	Un and -ing, - ed, -er -est	For year 1	and
Year 2	-ment, - ness, -ful, - less, -ly)	For year 2	and/ but/so	when,if, that, because	Simple past and present	Yes	Yes	Yes
Year 3	-ment, - ness, -ful, - less, -ly)	For Year 3	and/but/so	when, if, that, because	Plus progressive	Yes	Time and cause	Yes	Yes
Year 4	-ment, - ness, -ful, - less, -ly)	For Year 4	and/but/so	Plus although	Plus perfect form	Yes	Time and cause	Yes	Marked with a comma	To avoid repetition	To express time and cause
Year 5	-ment, - ness, -ful, - less, -ly)	For year 5	and/but/so	when, if, that, because, although	To build cohesion within paragraphs	Yes	Time and cause	Modified with prepositional phrases	Of time, place and number to link paragraphs.	To avoid repetition	To express time and cause	Who, which and that
Year 6	-ment, - ness, -ful, - less, -ly)	For Year 6	and/but/so	when, of, that, because, although	To build cohesion within paragraphs	Yes	Time and cause	Modified with prepositional phrases	Of time, place and number to link paragraphs	To avoid repetition	To express time and cause	Who, which, and that	Variety of clause and sentence structures	Passive Voice

For avoidance of doubt, a child is assumed to have achieved the statements in the previous year groups in order to be National Standard in their current year.

Progression of Grammar

Grammatical Term	Examples
Adverbs for time and cause	Suddenly, the fox jumped. Yesterday, the fox jumped.
Expanded noun phrase	The quick, red fox jumped.
Expanded noun phrase modified with preposition	The quick, red fox jumped over the fence.
Relative clause	The quick red, red fox jumped over the fence, which was high.
Vary clauses	The quick, red fox jumped over the fence (which was high) into the chicken coop. Over the fence (which was high) the quick, red fox jumped.
Passive Voice	The fence was jumped over by the quick, red fox.